RE: Speaking Invitation
Washington University School of Law
Champ Clark Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Fraternity
St. Louis, Missouri
Convenient Date

On behalf of the Champ Clark Chapter of the Phi Alpha Delta Fraternity at Washington University School of Law, Alan S. Zelkowitz has invited you to speak to Washington law students on a date convenient to you this year.

Phi Alpha Delta is reportedly the world's largest professional legal fraternity. Founded in 1902, it currently has about 117,000 members, 239 active chapters and 85 alumni chapters. In 1985, Judge John Sirica received the Thomas C. Clark Award from Phi Alpha Delta for outstanding exemplification of equal justice under law.

In view of your heavy schedule, I recommend that you decline this invitation. If you agree, a letter of regret is attached for your signature.

Dear Mr. Zelkowitz:

Thank you for your invitation to speak to the Champ Clark Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Fraternity at Washington University Law School. It is kind of you to think of me. Unfortunately, my schedule is such that I am unable to accept the opportunity to meet with your group and must decline.

Best wishes for a successful year.

Sincerely yours,

SERVICE TO THE STUDENT, THE LAW SCHOOL, THE PROFESSION AND THE COMMUNITY

June 28, 1988

The Honorable William H. Webster
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Judge Webster:

I am writing to you on behalf of the Champ Clark Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta at Washington University School of Law. I would like to invite you back to your alma mater to speak to the students.

Last year, we were honored to have The Honorable Howard T. Markey, Chief Judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit as the inaugural speaker in our series of prominent speakers from the legal community. It is our goal to bring members of the bench, bar and government together with law students to allow us to listen to their thoughts and, perhaps, "pick their brains". It would be a great honor to have you, an alumnus, speak this year.

STAT [redacted] told me that while she worked for you, the standing order in the office was - accept any speaking engagement in St. Louis on Fridays. Well, it is hard enough to get students to go to class on Friday, let alone something extra, but I am certain that we can work something out. Perhaps a Monday will be mutually convenient, or when you are in town for a Board of Trustees meeting. The best time for us would be on a Wednesday between 11 am and noon, as no classes are scheduled at that time. I hope that I am writing sufficiently early to make your schedule.

If you would like to have an aid contact me, I can be reached at the following address and phone numbers. I can be reached at the law firm of Kassly, Bone, Becker, Dix, Tillery & Reagan in Belleville, Illinois at (618) 235-0020 during the days, at home [redacted] during the evenings. The law school address is Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, Washington University School of Law, Campus Box 1120, 1 Brookings Drive, St. Louis, MO 63130. STAT

I look forward to hearing from you in the near future, and hope that you will have time to address the law school.

Sincerely,

Alan S. Zerkowitz
Justice,
Champ Clark Chapter
